/ \ \ \

Support

Resistance ●

Resistance is a price level where the stock repeatedly stops moving upward.

Example:

Stock reaches ₹100

Sellers become active
Price falls

So:

₹100 = Resistance

In your slide, the red arrows indicate resistance points.

Support ●

Support is a price level where the stock repeatedly stops moving downward.

Example:

Stock falls to ₹80
Buyers enter
Price rises

So:

₹80 = Support

In your slide, the green arrows indicate support points.

2. Real Chart Example (Second Slide)

The chart shows actual market movement.

Resistance

Stock struggles to move above it

Support

Stock bounces up
from this level

Interpretation

When price reaches:

Support

Price = ₹36.75

Many traders buy.

Result:

Price moves up

Resistance

Price = ₹37.00

Many traders sell.

Result:

Price moves down

Easy Rule
